

HOTEL OREGON EVENT SPACES

MATTIE'S ROOM

Mattie Hanna, the much-loved proprietor of the hotel's restaurant in the 1950s, took turns as hostess, bartender, server and cook. Today, Mattie's Room, like its namesake, adapts to all kinds of occasions. This second-story space, accessible by elevator, can be divided into three spacious rooms. The space is equipped with both phone and WiFi, and a variety of audiovisual equipment is available for rent. Mattie's Room features antique lighting, a beautiful full-service bar crafted of remilled fir boards and an evocative mural that recounts the building's past.

Step outside Mattie's Room to get some fresh air from the Third Street Balcony. It's a great spot to look at the stars, have a quiet conversation or watch the hustle and bustle on the street below.

Capacity is 130 people. Capacity for divided areas is 35 people.

PARAGON ROOM

This distinct room adjoining the pub is ideal for moderate-sized events. Named after the hotel's popular restaurant and lounge of the '40s and '50s, the Paragon Room is a classic space characterized by beadboard wainscoting and vintage fixtures and furnishings, including an antique pool table that can be easily converted to a conference table.

Check out the Kitchen Bar, tucked away in the Paragon Room, that opens directly into the pub's kitchen!

Capacity is 70 people.

CELLAR BAR

The alley entrance, low light and brick walls create a mysterious allure not unlike the underground speakeasies of the Prohibition Era. Order a glass or bottle of wine from a list that includes our own Edgefield wines plus many from the local vineyards. Admire the beautiful antique Brunswick back bar, over which many drinks have passed — legally and perhaps illegally — since its original service in an old Montana saloon.

Capacity is 25 people.

ADDITIONAL ATTRACTIONS

ROOFTOP BAR

Renovated in 2006, the bar was expanded to include more seating and decking, plus two bird's-eye tables atop the roof of the Rooftop Bar! The pub crowns Hotel Oregon, making it one of the highest perches in the area. From inside the bar's cozy, arch-windowed quarters, guests can watch as storms roll over the Cascade Range.

Visitors are encouraged to take a McMenamins ale or glass of Oregon wine onto the bar's rooftop terrace and gaze out across vineyards and orchards.

McMENAMINS PUB

This comfortable pub provides a welcoming atmosphere for all sorts of gatherings.

A decor blending greenery, antique light fixtures, curios and historical photos and artwork creates a visually interesting interior. The 40-foot-long bar fashioned from vintage remilled fir is a friendly spot, while separate tables and built-in booths encourage private conversation and offer a view of the activity on Third and Evans Streets. Like the hotel's earlier eateries, McMenamins Pub has a variety of entrees ranging from omelets to burgers and fries to seafood, pastas and steaks. Daily specials are available with breakfast, lunch and dinner.
